WHO WE ARE

Since 1988, Santa Barbara Wildlife Care Network (SBWCN) serves to rescue, rehabilitate and return to the wild sick, injured, orphaned, or oil-impaired wild birds, reptiles, amphibians, and small mammals in Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties .

Each year, 2,400 baby animals from 212 species are admitted, with operations running 365 days a year.

WILDLIFE HOSPITAL

Opened in 2022, the Wendy McCaw Wildlife Hospital is a 5,400-square-foot facility with surgery and X-ray rooms, oiled animal wash stations, and nurseries for baby wildlife. The hospital provides a massive upgrade to SBWCN's important rehabilitation efforts.
